EXHIBITION

KOREA (last chance)

TUE - SUN UNTIL 21 AUGUST

South Korean pop culture is in the spotlight like never before. With this exhibition in the Prinsessehof, you can dive into the rich Korean cultural history on the basis of masterpieces from the National Museum of Korea in Seoul. These are on display in the Netherlands for the first time (and only until 21 August).

MUSIC

Prinsentuin Concerts

EVERY SUNDAY

On summer Sunday afternoons, wonderful concerts free-of-charge take place every week in the Prinsentuin (park). Enjoy the Troubadour Treffen on August 21 with, among others, Joe Buck. On August 28, the Prinsentuin Concerts will be brought to a close with a 'swing': dancing to vibrant Cumbia and Latin rock by Los Tréboles and Massada.

EXHIBITION

Onderwatervermoeden

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

De Utrecht is temporarily featuring abstract, recognizable, large and small, raw and at the same time vulnerable sculptures by Maartje Korstanje. The images do not lend the time for talk about the nice weather, but instead offer room for musings and at the same time expose something urgent.
