EXHIBITION

Celebrate!

STARTING 29 OCTOBER

The Prinsessehof will be celebrating for a whole year! With this exhibition, the museum shows how parties are celebrated throughout the Netherlands, from Passover and Ketikoti to Carnival and Diwali. The differences between the celebrations are large, but food and drink almost always play an integral role, and therefore also ceramics.

EXHIBITION

Middle Ages in Friesland

TUESDAY - SUNDAY

The expo Freedom, Feuds, Purgatory dives into the illustrious history of the Frisian Middle Ages. The exhibition shows new scientific insights about the society of the north in the high and late Middle Ages. Discover a story of women with an abundance of dazzling jewels, violent clashes between clans, warriors with pole-vault spears and shaved hair

EXHIBITION

De Onderwatersafari (underwater safari)

DAILY

Take a dip below the water surface without getting your feet wet! In a special vehicle, you make a journey from a ditch and puddle with fresh water to the salt water of the Wadden Sea World Heritage. Let yourself be carried away by the current and look for the underwater Big Five of the Netherlands, which are: otters, beavers, catfish, seals and the porpoise!

ARCHITECTURE

Museumhuis van Eysinga

WED, THU, SAT & SUN

A mansion built by one of the greatest men of the eighteenth century. Of course, you expect splendour there. You even get to take a look at the staff's quarters! And why was the house empty for some time? Meet the Van Eysinga family, ring the bell, be surprised and take a seat at the gaming table.

WALK

Miniature People Leeuwarden

DAILY

Meet the smallest inhabitants of the city! At more than sixty locations in the city centre of Leeuwarden, you will discover the minuscule people in unexpected places. Rock climbers clamber up City Hall, homeless people sleep under a marble surround, and a construction worker with a jackhammer makes a huge crack in the ground.
