EXHIBITION

Celebrate!

TUESDAY - SUNDAY

The Princessehof will be celebrating for a whole year! With this exhibition, the museum shows how parties are celebrated throughout the Netherlands, from Passover and Ketikoti to Carnival and Divali. The differences between the celebrations are large, but food and drinks almost always play an integral role, and therefore also ceramics.

EXHIBITION

Middle Ages in Friesland

TUESDAY - SUNDAY

Dive into the illustrious history of the Frisian Middle Ages. This brilliant exhibition shows new scientific insights about the society of the north in the high and late Middle Ages. Discover a story of women with an abundance of dazzling jewels, violent clashes between clans, warriors with pole-vault spears and shaved hair.

WALK

Miniature People Leeuwarden

DAILY

Meet the smallest inhabitants of the city! At more than sixty locations in the city centre of Leeuwarden, you will discover the minuscule people in unexpected places. Rock climbers clamber up City Hall, homeless people sleep under a marble surround, and a construction worker with a jackhammer makes a huge crack in the ground.

EXHIBITION

Homo Bulla Est

25 & 26 NOVEMBER

De Utrecht is a hidden gem in the city centre of Leeuwarden, which in itself is worth discovering. But are you already familiar with the intimate, changing exhibitions? Until 26 November, you will find the video artworks by Inge Reisberman, in which time and space merge. Immerse yourself in this 'slow cinema' in a world full of wonder.

TOUR

Prison Tour Blokhuispoort

EVERY SATURDAY AND SUNDAY

For centuries, the former prison has stood in the centre of Leeuwarden, the illustrious Blokhuispoort. Hundreds of criminals have been imprisoned here, each with their own story. An exciting building with masterful tales of escapes and rough life in prison, told by former prison guards
