CHRISTMAS MARKET

Kerstmarkt in de Blokhuispoort

10 & 11 DECEMBER

On Saturday and Sunday, the old prison in Leeuwarden will be bursting with Christmas vibes. With more than fifty exhibitors, music by Karin Bloemen and Syb van der Ploeg, among others, and a food square with winter snacks, the 10th edition of the Christmas market at the Blokhuispoort promises to be a big party!

EXHIBITION

Handle with Care

TUESDAY-SUNDAY

Handle with care revolves around the hand and its gestures - expressions of intimacy, compassion, silence, coercion, labour and celebration. The universal role of hands and fingers in the lives of both humans and animals is captured in ceramics in this exhibition. With 37 works of art on this theme, it is a journey full of impressions.

THEATRE

North Side Story

9-18 DECEMBER

Art Gallery SPOONK delivers an energetic and surprising theatre performance, based on the classic Romeo & Juliet, but with a contemporary and unique twist. This story, in which the love between the Romantic Romeo and the Spicy Juliet flares up as the opposite of the hate, becomes more realistic and current than ever.

WALK

Theaterwandeling met De Nassaus

DAILY

Storyteller Jan-Dirk van Ravesteijn has been performing as "Us Heit" for 25 years and explains with great humour how the city came into being and what the contribution of Us Heit (governor Willem Lodewijk) has been as well as that of other well-known Leeuwarders. Enjoy a fresh combination of history and theatre, with a nice down to earth touch.
