LIGHT ART FESTIVAL

LUNA Nights & Young Masters

UNTIL 19 FEBRUARY

LUNA Nights will take place in the middle of the historic city centre from 9 to 11 February! Take a walk through known and unknown places – gardens, alleys, cellars, churches, garages and large squares are literally put in a different light during LUNA. Do not miss it! Also check out the exhibition of young makers, LUNA Young Masters, in the Stationskwartier until February 19.

EXHIBITION

Petrit Halilaj

TUESDAY-SUNDAY

Petrit Halilaj's solo exhibition You Used to Fly, Go Everywhere and Wake Those Who Sleep, weaves together reality and imagination in installations that emphasize the toll of art and cultural heritage on a community. On display for the first time in the Netherlands, so definitely worth it!

WALK

Theatre walk with the Nassau's

DAILY

Storyteller Jan-Dirk van Ravesteijn has been crawling under the skin of "Us Heit" for 25 years and explained with great humour how the city started and what the contribution has been of Us Heit (stadholder Willem Lodewijk) and other well-known Leeuwarders. Enjoy a nice combination of history and theatre that puts everything into perspective.
