Prison Tour Blokhuispoort

TOUR

For centuries, the Blokhuispoort has stood at the heart of Leeuwarden. Many criminals were imprisoned here, and many also met their end on the gallows at Blokhuisplein. Notorious names such as Dokter O., Aage M., Klaas B. — also known as ‘De Dominee’ — and, of course, the Hogerhuizen, all left their mark on this place. A former prison guard brings this extraordinary history to life through their stories. Tip: reserve your spot online in advance!

H47

ART

At H47, you'll find a changing programme of contemporary visual art exhibitions. This month, there are no fewer than two new shows to explore. In EVERYTHING ON THE TABLE, the table becomes a landscape, with artists passing the exhibition on to one another like a relay. Alongside this is KINSHIP: an exhibition by the young makers of Club VHDG, exploring the theme of connection and relatedness.

Fries Landbouwmuseum

MUSEUM

Discover the rich agricultural history of Friesland at the newly renovated Fries Landbouwmuseum, just outside Leeuwarden. Here, stories, machines, animals and remarkable objects come together. Alongside permanent exhibitions on the history of agriculture in Friesland, dairy farming, arable farming and the world of the Friesian horse, the museum is currently hosting a temporary exhibition featuring artworks by painter Johannes Elsinga.

Bouke de Vries: Unbroken

EXHIBITION

This is something you won't want to miss: UNBROKEN, a major retrospective dedicated to internationally acclaimed artist Bouke de Vries. The exhibition offers a unique look at the work of an artist who transforms broken ceramics into new and surprising works of art in innovative and versatile ways. Sustainability, fragility and restoration take centre stage in the beautiful galleries of the Keramiekmuseum.
